Surprises His Own Parents and Those of the Arkansas Bride.

A member of the Venice Matrimonial club, Joe Caples, son of Richard Caples, of El Paso, fulfilled his part of the pact Thursday night, when he was married at St. Violana cathedral in California, to Miss Vivian Miller, the eighteenyear-old daughter of Hugh J. Miller, of Rogers, Ark., but said to be formerly of El Paso. The marriage of young Caples and Miss Miller was a double barreled remance. Caples was a member of the now famous Matrimonial club which was organized by a half dozen young men at Venice, Car., where they were spending the summer. Joe Caples was one of the six who vowed he would marry or die trying. The fifth one married Monday; Caples on Thursday. The habit of making a safety deposit vault out of lock boxes will also terminate quickly, say postoffice officials. Some people who have more than one key to their box have made use of their mail receptacle for a deposit box Often the postoffice employes come across packages and bundles left in the boxes by persons owning duplicate keys. This is a misuse of the box and must end.
